To Whom it May Concern

Reference for Ian Roebuck Crane Hire

ICL Construction Ltd is a commercial construction firm operating from New Plymouth in the Taranaki region.

ICL undertake a range of commercial and civil projects for local body and private enterprise. Projects typically include the following activities:

- Box culvert manufacture and installation
- Precast concrete bridge manufacture and installation
- Manufacture and erection of precast concrete wall panels
- Installation of structural steel portal frames and trusses
- Transportation of bulk items to site

ICL have used Roebuck Crane hire for craneage and transportation requirements on these projects for more than 10 years and continue to do so for the following reasons:

- Quality focus
- Health and safety focus, we have had no lost time incidents on ICL sites resulting from work undertaken by the company.
- Reliability of service.
- Work completed on time and on budget
- Range of equipment available including flat bed trucks, hiab trucks, and a good range of cranes including rough terrain.
- Friendly and co-operative approach to service delivery.

Yours faithfully
ICL Construction Ltd
